AN OPAL AND DIAMOND NECKLACE AND EARRING SET

The necklace is hand assembled in silver and 18 carat yellow gold

Not stamped

Era: Late Victorian

The necklace features a pear shape cabochon cut Opal in an 18 carat yellow gold bezel and double claw setting, suspended from three collet set old cut diamonds and attached to a silver bow that features a bezel set central oval cabochon cut Opal and 24 mille grain set old cut diamonds. Attached to the necklace is a fine silver chain with a modern parrot clasp. The bow measures 21.84 x 17.21 x 2.52mm and the main setting measures 30.50 x 12.70mm.

Necklace length: 42.00cm. Item weight: 8.05 grams.

The earrings are and assembled in 9 carat yellow gold

Not stamped

Era: Late Victorian

Each earring consists of a claw set round cabochon cut Opal and 11 surrounding part claw and grain set old cut diamonds in an open backed gallery setting with grooved bezel base support and suspended from a narrow bar. Attached to the bar are ear wire posts and friction fitted scrolls. The earrings measure 26.00mm in length and the settings measure 10.31 x 4.09mm.

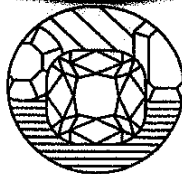

Item weight: 3.17 grams.

Presented in good condition with light signs of wear. Consistent with being an antique piece this item shows slight wear, care should be taken when being worn.
