All stone weights are estimated unless stated. All unstamped metals have been tested and their type and quality estimated. Antique, or jewellery which in todays market would be beyond its realistic value to be replaced using hand made methods is valued at open market value. Unless otherwise stated all jewellery is valued at replacement value, that is the price one would pay for a similar piece of jewellery in the average New Zealand store. Unless otherwise stated all claws and settings are deemed to be in good and safe condition. All stones are deemed to be of average condition unless otherwise stated
