Handknotted Oriental Rug*

Country of origin: IRAN

Provenance: Ferahan or Saruq

Materials: Cotton Warp
Cotton Weft
Wool Pile

Knot: Senneh 132 kpsi

Dimension: 200 x 124

Design: I think this lovely old rug can be attributed to the Ferahan or Saruq region of Central Iran and is probably early 20th Century - The design consists of a central medallion on elongated pole on madder field covered with floral, vine and leaf forms - four corner spandrels and one main herati border on dark blue with two lesser borders.
