Notes on our assessment:

This valuation has been undertaken by Partridge Jewellers based on an in-person inspection of the item presented. The valuation has been prepared to the best of the valuer's knowledge and expertise, reflecting the estimated retail replacement cost on the date of this certificate.

- For items purchased from Partridge Jewellers: The valuation draws on our historical records of the piece at the time of sale, alongside current market conditions.
- For items purchased from an alternate retailer: The valuation is based solely on the physical characteristics observed during assessment and any supplementary information supplied by the customer. We are unable to verify its original specifications or provenance.

All metals and stones are described as accurately as possible, without the use of laboratory testing or full assay. No liability is accepted for any inaccuracies in identification, assessment, or valuation contained in this report.
