

Live Bidding Instructions

When the auction begins click on Live Now to join the live auction.

A screenshot of an online auction page. At the top, there are navigation tabs: "Auction Details", "Catalogue", "Wish List", "Absentee Bidding", "Registration Pending", and "LIVE NOW". Below the tabs is a large image of a ring. To the right of the image, the text reads: "Lot 0001", "Art Deco All Platinum Diamond & Sapphire Cluster Ring", and "Estimate: $1,000.00 - $1,500.00". Below this is a blue button that says "Bidding on this lot will begin shortly ...". Underneath that, it says "Buyer premium and GST is additional to your bid. All bids are subject to our buyer terms and conditions". At the bottom, there is a section titled "Bidding Activity" and "Lot Description" which reads: "central cross of five square and mixed cut sapphires with fancy surround of millegrain pave set 28 diamonds and six shoulder diamonds". A "Connected" button is circled in red.

You should see the Connected button, if not you may need to refresh the page. Please wait for the auction to begin.

The auctioneer will close bidding and you will no longer be able to bid. Your screen will look like this until the next lot appears

If you are successful on a lot this notice will pop up, click Close to bid on next lot.

Alternatively if you won a lot subject to approval this notice will appear (subject to approval means that the bidding has closed at a range lower than the reserve set and the buyer needs to give their approval for the item to be sold). You will be contacted once this approval has been given, or there may be a negotiation if appropriate.
